If you haven't traveled to Sicily and experienced the hearty textures and flavors of the finest foods, skip the long flights, airport crowds and surly cabbies, and simply discover Mangia Mangia Italian Grill, in the countryside East of Hershey. Even if you don't speak Italian, you'll soon welcome the translation of the name as "Eat, Eat!" Once you do, you'll come to love something wonderful and amazing every visit! Whether you've just discovered this amazing locale or know them by name, Natale and Mariella Amato dreamed of their festive trattoria-style restaurant for decades, thousands of miles away in their native home of Carini, Sicily. The smells, tastes, emotions wafting from every individualized dish or family-style platter tell of amore, of love for the fine cuisine served with great vigor by a welcoming staff enriching every experience. So travel close to home, and treat yourself to memorable tastes served with old world hospitality. Mangia Mangia!
